

Rev. Aguilar is the first Mexican-American female pastor ordained in the UCC. She is also a fourth generation pastor in her family. She grew up in Chicago, attended North Park University there and then Andover Newton Theological School in MA where she received her MDiv in 1997. She has been an associate pastor of four diverse churches in MA, CA, and briefly in Chicago. Some were multiracial and in inner-city neighborhoods. While others were suburban and predominantly Anglo. She is currently serving as the Acting Associate Pastor of Claremont UCC.