

Rev. David Alicea

Biographical Sketch:

Rev. David Alicea was born in the Bronx, New York and raised in Puerto Rico. He has been an ordained pastor for over 30 years, which include; 10 years as pastor in Puerto Rico with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), also 12 years as a Navy Chaplain and 8 years as pastor of Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the Southwest Region of California and Presbytery Los Ranchos in Anaheim. He completed his Bachelor's degree in Education from Central University and a Master degree in Divinity from the Evangelical Seminary of Puerto Rico and this March, a PhD in Educational Psychology with a certification as a Therapist. Rev. Alicea is preaching the word of God in different churches and providing a counseling ministry that includes, Seminaries and workshops on Leadership training and Family Therapy. He is serving as a family counselor in his weekly program through Vida-TV, 62.3, in Los Angeles. Currently, he is working on a research project on Clergy Burnout in order to create effective and preventive measuring treatments that will enhance every pastor's ministry.