

Rev. John H. Pomeroy

Co-Pastor

First Congregational Church, UCC

Pasadena, CA

Biographical Statement:

Rev. John H. Pomeroy is Co-Pastor of the First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ in Pasadena, CA. John and his wife Marlene have served this 200 member Open and Affirming, Just Peace congregation for the past twelve years. John works part-time as the Western Area Mission Interpreter of the Cornerstone Fund, UCC and has worked with a variety of church leaders, Conference staff members and churches in the past eight years. John has taught at the University of Virginia, Occidental College and Claremont School of Theology and serves as an Associate for the Kaleidoscope Institute (Los Angeles, CA), a not for profit consulting group that offers diversity training based on the work of Rev. Eric H.F. Law. John lives with his wife, two teenagers and a dog in La Crescenta, CA.