

Rev. Susan Brecht is the pastor of the Community Church of Atascadero, UCC. In a former life, she worked as a professional artist and actress. During her years in seminary at Pacific School of Religion she began applying her artistic gifts to creating visual space for worship. She has designed worship space for the Earl Lectures at PSR and altars for the last two annual meetings of the SCNC. She has created a day long workshop entitled Visual Arts and Worship to help inspire others to add a visual aspect to worship.
