The camp is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Camp Store: The Camp store will have a variety of sundry items, and souvenirs for purchase.

Camp Rules: (read carefully)

The following rules are intended to create a safe and healthy weekend for all participants. Campers, counselors and staff are expected to know the camp rules, and to follow them. Failure to do so may be cause for dismissal from camp.

Meals and Program - Campers and counselors are required to be at all meals and programs.

Relationships - Campers, counselors and staff agree to treat each other with mutual dignity and respect at all times, and agree not to engage in sexual activity.

Cabins - Each cabin is either all male or all female. Males are not allowed in female cabins and females are not allowed in male cabins. This includes the porch area.

Food and drink are not allowed in cabins at any time.

Medications - ALL MEDICATIONS, prescription and over-the-counter, must be turned in to the camp nurse at check-in. The nurse will dispense them from the camp health center. This applies to both counselors and campers.

Smoking - This event is a smoke-free event for campers, counselors and leadership. No smoking is permitted.

Drugs and Alcohol - The possession and/or use of illicit drugs and/or alcoholic beverages is prohibited at Pilgrim Pines Camp for campers, counselors and staff.

Boundaries - Participants are required to stay within the defined boundaries of Pilgrim Pines Camp, except when on an "organized hike." The boundaries of the camp and guidelines for organized hikes will be given during the orientation at the beginning of camp. It is the camper's responsibility to know the boundaries. Ask an adult leader before you go exploring!

The Stream and Water Supply - The stream that runs through camp is an important part of the water supply for the camp and the residents of Oak Glen. Tampering or interfering with it in anyway is against the law. Do not drink from the red faucets; this water is not safe for drinking.

Fires - Building fires is not permitted except under the supervision of the camp staff. Possession and use of fireworks not allowed and is against the law.

Plan to leave your cell phone at home!

Additional guidelines may be given by leadership during the event.
